CODE of ETHICS & RESPONSIBILITIES

As a Coach with WTFNC, I will:

1. Provide a positive attitude and demonstrate principles of fair play and sportsmanship;
2. Embrace the faith based philosophy of our program that is founded in love for each member of our program;
3. Place the emotional and physical well-being of the players ahead of the desire to win;
4. Treat each player as an individual, recognizing the vast range of emotional and physical development of players at a given age of play;
5. Always teach the techniques of the game in such a way as to provide a safe playing situation for the players;
6. Organize my training in such a way as to make sure they are fun and challenging for all of my players;
7. Familiarise myself with the rules of the game and the rules and policies of the Wagga and District Junior Australian Football League and the WTJFNC;
8. Use coaching techniques that are appropriate at the skill level and the players that I coach.
9. I will remember that I coach a junior team and that the game is for young players and not adults.

While Serving as a Volunteer Coach with WTJFNC:

1. I understand that my duties as a coach include volunteering to assist in duties such as equipment maintenance, fundraising, and general administration;
2. I understand that I may be required to attend training sessions that are designed to improve my coaching skills and to familiarise me with the latest coaching techniques and safety considerations;
3. I will always be positive in my suggestions and criticisms;
4. I will maintain regular contact with the parents/guardians of my players, be responsible for equipment and maintain all necessary paperwork in a proper and professional manner;
5. I will not attempt to represent the position of WTJFNC on any subject matter to players, parents, AFL Riverina or the Wagga and District Junior Football League without the consent of the WTJFNC President and Committee.

By signing this form I acknowledge that I have read the responsibilities and ethics policies outlined above and that I agree to perform my duties as a coach in conformance with those policies. I further understand that if I do not follow these policies the club may remove me as a coach and prohibit my ability to coach in the future.
